

T4

ACROSS

1. Pre programming a process to function without human intervention
4. A statement of the desired result of the system
5. the joining together of two or more systems to form a new system
7. Setting the operations steps in a program in advance so that when the system is turned on it will run
10. a regularly interacting or interdependent group of items forming a unified whole
11. Information obtained by monitoring the output, which permits adjustment
12. a method of regulating a system

DOWN

2. a system through which a technical process combines resources to provide an output in response to an
3. the process of observing the output of a system
6. A system that is pre-programmed (manually or automatically) to follow a fixed set of procedures
8. a change in the process to cause the actual result (output) to conform to the desired result (input)
9. data, materials, resources, or instructions entered into a system