

Twelve Corners Middle School
Music Department

Monday, February 17th

Dear 8th Grade Band Families,

Our Music in Our Schools Month Concert will be held on Tuesday, March 5th in the TCMS Auditorium. The concert will begin at 7:45pm. Please make sure your child has transportation to and from the concert, and is dressed properly for this occasion.

Below are the details regarding your child's concert night:

- All students should report to the band room at 7:15pm

**Since this will be our final performance in the TCMS Auditorium, concert attire can be any color for this event (although black and white can still be worn).****

As with previous concerts, please refrain from wearing athletic apparel, jeans, or sneakers to this event.

Performance attendance and preparation are worth 20% of your child's second quarter grade. If there are any potential difficulties in attending the concert, students must bring in a note before the concert in order to be eligible for make-up work. In case of an emergency, please notify Ms. Lamb as soon as possible. If there is any difficulty with the attire requested, please notify Ms. Lamb as soon as possible. All concert attire must be acceptable per the school dress code.

As always, thank you so much for your support and cooperation throughout the year, and we look forward to sharing our music with you!

Ms. Kendra Lamb
8th Grade Band Director
