

Summer Reading List AP Literature

Please read the following texts before the first day of class. As you are reading, take notes. You may also wish to post-it important passages to refer to during class discussion. Please bring your texts with you to class in September. If you are unable to obtain online or library copies, you may borrow one from the high school.

The Holy Bible selections from the King James translation available from your English teacher, Genesis, Exodus, and Luke

Pride and Prejudice

By Jane Austen

Americanah

By Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie